Introducing Margarita B. Levy – Relationship Dating Coach LLC

Greetings,

I am delighted to introduce myself, Margarita B. Levy, as a seasoned Relationship Dating Coach LLC. It is my profound mission to significantly reduce the rate of divorces through my dedicated and researched approach to relationship coaching.

Mission:

My mission is to reduce divorces. A staggering 95% of the people I work with have experienced at least one divorce. This statistic fuels my passion to make a positive impact on individuals' lives by helping them find and maintain meaningful, lasting relationships.

The Clarity Before Dating Program:

At the core of my coaching is a meticulously researched Program. This program is designed to bring forth both the strong and weak points in an individual, with a focus on 22 fundamental issues. This initial step is crucial in defining who you are, which then paves the way for finding the right partner, whether they share similar traits or are complete opposites. This often depends on the profession involved.

Unique Approach

What sets us apart is our unique feature: the ability to analyze two individuals' facial features from photographs to determine compatibility. This innovative approach adds an extra layer of precision to the matchmaking process, ensuring a higher likelihood of success in relationships.

Methodology

Dating should only be addressed when a person feels ready. This readiness comes from having seen, discussed, and understood their own personality traits and what they seek in a partner. We believe in a methodical and thoughtful approach to dating, which leads to more meaningful and lasting connections.

CLARITY BEFORE DATING PROGRAM

Dating has become overwhelming, and the rate of divorces rising every day. We are here to help. We feel that the reason behind all these breakups is because not enough effort was made to research all the qualities that are needed to make relationships work.

Our research indicates that men or women look at a picture, determine if they like it, quickly review the likes, and go on a date, which unfortunately is either rejection, or not at all the person one imagined, and certainly no knowledge whatsoever on what this person is about.

So our "CLARITY MATCH PROGRAM" was researched and created. We have found there are at least 22 issues that need to be carefully reviewed, and rated on a scale of 1-10

Once the program is completed it is returned to the Coach, who studies it, and completes a report on the type of person best suited with that personality. A picture is indicative of certain facial features that indicate the compatibility of both individuals, it is a feature that is rarely used by coaches but that we are very familiar with.
